COLLIDES WITH BICYCLE R. B. Bivins Thrown From Wheet in Collision With Automobile.
B. B. Bivins, of 2218 Venable Street, was thrown from his wheel and badly bruised and his wheel smashed in a collision yesterday afterneon with H. C. Boschen's automobile.
The car was being driven by a colored chauffely, James Bland, when the accident occurred at First and Grace Streets. The automobile was not damaged, but the wheel was smashed to pieces, it is said, and the rider much bruised. But the collision seems to have been entirely accidental. A physician was not summoned.

Judgment was entered in the Law and Equity Court yesterday in the suit of the Planters' National Bank against F. Dickenson and Alice Patton Dickenson for $2.00.2.26

The suit was originally entered against Loren Dickenson and the two defendants named above, but since the memorandum was filed, Loren Dickenson has died. He was the drawer of a note in 1996 on which the other two were indorsers.

Mission Lecture at College.

Rov. T Bronson Ray, D. D., educational secretary of the Fowler Mission Board, will give two illustrated lectures in the chapter of Richmond College, one this evening at Richmond College, one this evening at Richmond College, on the coher Wallesday evening on Africa. These betters will be fully illustrated with attractive pictures, specially prepared to illustrate mission conditions in these countries. Dr. Ray is an attractive speaker, whose special work is the development of missionary interest among college students and other young people. The public is invited.
